Mission:

The Downtown Austin Community Court (DACC) was established in 1999 and operates as a problem-solving court. It was the seventh community court established in the United States, and the first established in Texas. DACC's mission is to empower people to thrive by providing impartial justice and compassionate community-based services. DACC services are supported by work across four units, including Community Services, Court Services, Homeless Services, and Support Services.

The mission of DACC is to empower people to thrive by providing impartial justice and compassionate community-based services.
