Mission:

- Increase public safety
- Ensure that Police Department activities maximize public health and safety and minimize harm.
- Build trust and improve interactions between the Police Department and the people it serves.
- Ensure that Police Department policies and practices are rooted in community needs and public input
- Increase public support for Police Department policies and practices.
- Ensure that Police Dept resources aren't used to address public health or safety issues that other professionals are better equipped to address.
- Encourage preventative, proactive, community-based, and evidence-based approaches to public safety.
- Increase transparency and public input into Police Department operations, policies, and performance.
- Give residents of every Chicago community meaningful opportunity to shape Police Department policies and practices that affect their lives.
- Help bring Chicago into compliance with the Police Dept Consent Decree.
- Increase efficiency in the use of public safety resources, and increase public accountability of the Police Department, COPA, and the Police Board.
