Mission:

In accordance with Dallas City Code, the Municipal Library Board is charged with advising the Mayor and City Council, the City Manager, and the Director of Libraries on matters related to library operations and services. The Board also assumes a supportive role through its promotion of the Library and its programs.

Purpose

The Municipal Library Board members serve as liaisons between the library and the communities in which they live. They also advocate for library funding and support as well as promoting library events within their communities. They offer feedback on potential changes to library policies and procedures and new program and outreach ideas.
