Mission:

At the Department of Housing Stability (HOST), we are committed to ensuring all Denverites have a roof over their heads. HOST's vision is to create a healthy, housed and connected Denver. We do that by investing resources, creating policy, and building partnerships to provide housing stability, resolve episodes of homelessness, and create and preserve affordable housing. Our work is guided by our overarching core value of equity. Our work is person-centered, trauma informed, and data driven.
