Mission:

The Department of Public Safety (DOS) is tasked with oversight of the five public safety agencies that protect the Denver community and keep our neighborhoods safe. Under the direction of Executive Director Al Gardner, who was appointed by the Mayor of Denver in August 2025 pending confirmation, DOS leads with transparency and provides guidance and strategic support to our agencies. This includes budget management, operational guidance, human resources functions, discipline of sworn personnel, data analysis, policy direction, legislative affairs, and open records and communications support.
