Mission:

The City of Houston Office of Emergency Management (OEM) is the chief coordinating agency for disaster response in the nation's fourth-largest City. OEM provides emergency response coordination and communication assistance to City agencies, and serves as liaison to regional, state and federal agencies during times of emergency. In addition, OEM engages with the local community to promote emergency preparedness through a variety of initiatives.

Our Mission

"The City of Houston Office of Emergency Management is committed to safeguarding everyone who lives, works, and plays in Houston against all hazards and threats through coordinated planning and response with a trusted, compassionate, and diverse team focused on people, professionalism, preparedness, and partnerships."

Our Vision

"A national leader in Emergency Management that serves as Houston's trusted and compassionate resource for the whole community during the worst of times."
