Contacts and Stakeholders Information:

Joseph P. O'Connor

Joseph P. O'Connor was elected Marion County Assessor in 2010. He has more than 25 years of property tax assessment experience and is a certified level III Indiana assessor/appraiser and a licensed Indiana real estate broker. He enjoys serving the county as president of the Marion County Commissioners and chairman of the Information Technology Board. He also serves on other local boards, including the Property Tax Assessment Board of Appeals as secretary and the Board of Finance. As assessor, he works to apply fair and equitable assessments to homes and businesses. His goals include expediting the appeals process and creating greater transparency in the assessor's office. He also plans to use technology to create a more efficient assessment process, as well as expand online access to public records. In his personal time, O'Connor enjoys spending time with his family, including his wife, Jennifer, and four children.
