Mission:

Keeping your government accountable

The mission of the Office of Audit and Performance is to evaluate City-County operations to promote accountability and a high performing government for the citizens of Indianapolis-Marion County. It reviews various agencies, policies, and practices, and suggests ways for them to improve. Major functions include internal audits, which are selected based on an annual risk assessment, external audit management, performance projects, and the Indy Performs initiative. This office is overseen by the City-County Audit Committee.
