Mission:

HACLA is committed to preserving, enhancing, and expanding deeply affordable housing and improving the quality of life for Angelenos with a focus on People, Place, and Pathways to Opportunity.

The Housing Authority of the City of Los Angeles (HACLA) is one of the nation's largest public housings authorities and is the largest provider of affordable housing and rent assistance to low and very low-income households in the City of Los Angeles. Through a variety of programs, HACLA owns and operates housing units and administers Section 8 Rent Assistance Vouchers. The HACLA also provides extensive economic development, employment, education and social programs as part of a commitment to foster healthy communities and promote economic self-sufficiency.
