Mission:

The Department of City Planning (DCP) plans for the future of New York City, working to create thriving and dynamic neighborhoods with access to housing and jobs, resilient infrastructure, and a vibrant public realm. Through land use policies, zoning regulations, and inclusive plans and studies, DCP encourages housing access, supports long term sustainability, and fosters economic opportunity. Through contributions to the preparation of the City's 10-year Capital Strategy, DCP helps coordinate equitable investments in infrastructure and services.
