Mission:

The University's historic mission continues to this day: provide a public first-rate education to all students, regardless of means or background.

The City University of New York is the nation's largest urban public university, a transformative engine of social mobility that is a critical component of the lifeblood of New York City. Founded in 1847 as the nation's first free public institution of higher education, CUNY today has 26 colleges spread across New York City's five boroughs, serving nearly 240,000 degree-seeking students of all ages and awarding 50,000 degrees each year.
