Mission:

The Department of Streets designs, builds, and repairs the City of Philadelphia's streets and roadways. We lead infrastructure projects that enhance our local transportation network and help build a safer, cleaner, and greener city.

Strong transportation systems are essential to creating good quality of life and economic opportunities for all. Our department keeps Philadelphia moving by:

Constructing and maintaining 320 bridges and 2,525 miles of streets and highways.

Gathering data on traffic and evaluating causes of crashes.

Providing all surveying functions for the City of Philadelphia.
