Mission:

The Office of Clean and Green Initiatives address quality of life issues like litter and graffiti, starting in the city's most underserved neighborhoods. The Office was created to solve persistent quality of life problems and help build a safer, cleaner, and greener city. We're creating a data-driven action plan to guide our work and proactively address:

Litter | Illegal dumping | Graffiti | Abandoned automobiles | Vacant lots | Nuisance properties

The Office of Clean and Green Initiatives oversee:

- The Department of Sanitation
- The Community Life Improvement Program (CLIP)
- The PHL Taking Care of Business Clean Corridors Program
