Mission:

The Office of Transportation and Infrastructure Systems (OTIS) drives change through Philadelphia's transportation and infrastructure. We lead a group of departments and divisions that include:

- Office of Multimodal Planning, which manages many initiatives of the City's Complete Streets program.
- Department of Streets.
- Philadelphia Water Department.

We also work with local and national organizations to advance the City's interests. Through our policies and programs, we provide cost-effective, quality services with a focus on residents.
