Mission:

The agency works by:

Managing an award-winning public art program that works in neighborhoods with local, national, and international artists to create a more beautiful and vibrant city.

Investing annually in grants to nonprofit arts organizations and artists to ensure cultural services and opportunities are accessible to Phoenix residents of all ages.

Overseeing cultural facilities that engage and serve residents and draw more than eight million visitors annually.

Promoting professional development opportunities for individual artists and administrators to help sustain a healthy cultural workforce.

Supporting programs and events for students to help develop their personal, social, and intellectual skills that are critical to success in life, school, and work.

Participating in national studies and administering field research to make a strong case for the arts to demonstrate their economic, social, practical, and educational benefits.
