Mission:

The City of Phoenix operates with a Council-manager form of government which includes the City Manager, the Mayor, and Councilmembers who all help represent and manage the city. The City Manager has been appointed by the Mayor and City Council to manage the day-to-day operations of the City and to advise the City Council about these operations when they set policy. The City Manager and their staff oversee all City departments and functions to help serve the community efficiently and effectively. In Phoenix, the City Manager oversees more than 13,000 City employees and oversees more than 30 departments, providing crucial City services and managing the finances and budget of the city.
