Mission:

On August 22, 2005, the Correctional Administration and the Correctional Health Services Corporation (CHSC), a private nonprofit corporation organized on December 11, 1997, signed an administrative contract for the latter to be responsible for administering and providing health services to the Puerto Rico incarcerated population, effective September 1, 2005. The Correctional Health Program (CHSC) has fiscal autonomy, pursuant to Administrative Order No. 99 of the Puerto Rico Department of Health. Through Executive Order No. OE-2005-49, it was transferred to the Correctional Administration, pursuant to the court order in the Morales Feliciano case, dated January 26, 2004. The Correctional Administration maintains control of the budget and any public funds granted to it.

Contacts and Stakeholders Information:

The director of Puerto Rico's Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, the agency responsible for correctional health, is currently Francisco Antonio Quiñones Rivera.
