Mission:

Promote and preserve ethical conduct among public servants, ensuring respect for and obedience to the law to strengthen public confidence in the government.

OUR VISION

An autonomous Government Ethics Office, with complete fiscal and administrative independence. A working team unaffected by political beliefs, partisanship, or any other affiliation. An Office equipped with advanced technology that provides programs to maximize guidance, consultation, investigation, and financial report review services. A solid and indelible government institution, whose employees are models of integrity for all public servants. An Office that is a leader in the prevention and fight against corruption at the local and international levels.
