Mission:

The mission of the OPM is to ensure the full development of women, promote equality and equity, eradicate all forms of discrimination and violence, promote and enforce public policies that guarantee women's human rights, and educate the community to make proactive and affirmative decisions in defense of women's rights.

Vision

The OPM aspires to a society that actively promotes peace, justice, respect, and the essential human dignity of both men and women. Women enjoy a better quality of life and claim and assert their rights. Government agencies and private entities are sensitive to and characterized by inclusion, equity, and respect for human rights. Violence against women and girls and gender stereotypes are eradicated.
