Mission:

We are a public corporation focused on the development, growth, stability, solidity, and efficient operation of Puerto Rico's cooperative system. To contribute to the well-being of our cooperative members, we strive to ensure that our work is transparent and reliable. At the same time, we promote cooperative values and principles to ensure and facilitate, through supervision, oversight, and guidance, the contribution of cooperativism to the island's socioeconomic development, the growth of cooperative businesses, and ensuring the solvency of our savings and credit cooperatives through effective use of our human resources.
