Mission:

Puerto Rico boasts the most important and significant symphony orchestra in the entire Caribbean. The history of our orchestra dates back to 1956, when Maestro Pablo Casals first came to Puerto Rico, the birthplace of his mother, Pilar Defilló. The Maestro quickly fell in love with our homeland and harbored the dream of creating a symphony orchestra.

Contacts and Stakeholders Information:

The Puerto Rico Symphony Orchestra Corporation's (Orquesta Sinfónica de Puerto Rico) current Music Director is Maximiano Valdés, a position he has held for many years, while the Executive Director is Melissa M. Santana, MBA, who also serves as Executive Director of the Puerto Rico Institute of Culture.
