Mission:

Formed in 1971, the Seattle Office of Arts & Culture (OAC) manages the City's public art program, grants for individuals and arts and culture organizations, The Creative Advantage arts education initiative, and cultural facilities Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute, ARTS at King Street Station, and ARTS at Denny Substation. We are supported by the 16-member Seattle Arts Commission, citizen volunteers appointed by the Mayor and City Council.

Mission

We activate and sustain Seattle through arts and culture.

Vision

The Office of Arts & Culture envisions a city driven by creativity that provides the opportunity for everyone to engage in diverse arts and cultural experiences.
